

NRL Before-You-Go Checklist

In the excitement of getting ready for the NRL National Competition, it can be easy to overlook important details. We want your experience to be as trouble-free as possible. So, before you go, take time to be sure that all of the following have been taken care of.

- Team registration form has been completed online.
- NRL Agreement-Waiver has been signed by a parent/guardian for each student. Form can be faxed to (216) 264-2840, emailed to khrusch@ntma.org or presented on-site at the competition. Students will not be allowed to participate without a signed waiver.
- Team information paragraph and photos have been sent to Kristen Hrusch at khrusch@ntma.org
- Documentation is complete and ready to be turned in at the time of the Documentation Interview. Teams must submit a documentation binder in order to be able to compete.
- Team members are prepared for an on-site interview with NRL volunteers.
- NRL Competition Rules have been reviewed by all members of the team.
- NRL Technical Regulations have been reviewed by all members of the team.
- Airline reservations (if required) have been made. All students have proper government issued identification for airport security check.
- Room reservations (if required) have been made.
- Be sure to bring the following items with you:
 1. Safety glasses for everyone who will be in the pit area
 2. Extension cord and multi-plug or power strip for your pit table
 3. Wood block for working on your bot in the pit
 4. Personal tools
- Free parking is available on the California University of PA campus in the River Lot 4.
- Safety Inspections will be held by appointment, so be sure you plan to arrive in plenty of time to make your assigned time.
- The NRL Competition will begin on Friday evening at 7 PM with the opening round. The 2nd round of the competition will then resume on Saturday morning at 9 AM.
- We have a hashtag! Don't forget to include #gonrl18 with your Facebook posts and tweets before and during the 2018 competition.

We look forward to having your team at the NRL Championship. If you have any questions or concerns, please contact Bill Padnos by email bpadnos@ntma.org or by phone (216) 264-2828 or Kristen Hrusch by email khrusch@ntma.org or by phone at (216) 695-0415.
