

NRL 2019 NATIONAL COMPETITION COMPETITOR AGREEMENT

THIS COMPETITOR AGREEMENT (“Agreement”) is entered into by and between the National Robotics League and the National Tooling and Machining Association hereafter referred to collectively as “Producers”, on the one hand, and the combatant and all associated team members and affiliates set forth below (collectively, “Competitor”), on the other hand. The Producers and Competitor shall sometimes collectively be referred to as the “Parties.”

The Producers intend to present a robotics combat tournament (“Tournament”) on May 17-18, 2019 at the California University of Pennsylvania, Convocation Center, 250 University Ave, California, PA, 15419. The Tournament will feature the radio-controlled robots of Competitor and other competitors in one-on-one combat, as well as other forms of competition and demonstration. It is the purpose of this Agreement to set forth the terms and conditions of Competitor’s participation in the Tournament. Accordingly, in consideration of the Producers’ promotion of, and Competitor’s desire to compete in, the Tournament, the Parties agree as follows:

1. Nature of the Tournament

Competitor acknowledges that the Tournament will involve physical combat between robots operated by Competitor and other contestants. Such combat may result in significant damage to, or the complete destruction of, Competitors’ robot(s). Competitor acknowledges and expressly accepts the risk of loss of any robot(s) and property that Competitor uses to compete in the Tournament. Competitor shall not assert any claims for property loss against the Producers or any other person or entity that arise out of or are related to the Tournament.

2. Compliance with Rules, Regulations, and Instructions

Competitor agrees to comply with all of the Producers’ written and oral rules and regulations relating to the Tournament. To the extent that Competitor fails to comply with any of the Producers’ written or oral rules or regulations, the Producers may (in its sole discretion) disqualify that Competitor and/or the Competitor’s robot(s) from the Tournament.

3. Safety

It is essential that all robots competing in the Tournament operate safely. Competitor expressly warrants and represents that Competitor’s robot(s) complies with all of the Producers’ rules and regulations relating to design, construction, and safe operation. If, at any time, Competitor believes that a robot poses a risk of danger or injury to any person, Competitor shall immediately cease all operation of that robot. The Producers shall have unlimited discretion to disqualify a robot or an individual from competing in the Tournament for any reason.

4. Release of Liability and Indemnity

Notwithstanding the various efforts that will be made to ensure that the Tournament is safe, Competitor acknowledges that robotic combat is inherently dangerous and involves the risk of serious injury to competitors and spectators. Competitor expressly waives, releases, and holds harmless the Producers from all claims, demands, causes of action, damages, and/or liabilities that may arise from the Tournament and any preparations for the Tournament. Competitor expressly agrees to indemnify and hold harmless the Producers from all claims, demands, causes of action, damages and/or liabilities which may be suffered or incurred arising out of the design, maintenance, appearance, and/or operation of Competitor's robot, including any intellectual property rights associated with the robot.

5. Grant of Rights

Except as set forth expressly in paragraph 6 below, Competitor agrees that the Producers shall have the perpetual non-exclusive right to display, use, and otherwise exploit all rights Competitor may hold in the following: (a) Competitor's name, voice, likeness, biographical data, and identity; (b) the design and appearance of Competitor's robot(s). It is agreed that the Producers shall have the right, but not the obligation, to film, photograph, and/or videotape the Tournament, including without limitation, events taking place prior to, during, and after the Tournament, in whole or in part, by means of any media and to commercially exploit the resulting product in perpetuity, by any means. The Producers shall have the sole and exclusive right to distribute, sell, license, exhibit, and in any other manner exploit all derivative works resulting from the Tournament and the filming, photographing, and videotaping thereof.
